UNTERLAGE FÜR DIE LEHRKRAFTTAPE SCRIPT

Interviewer: I heard you went to Greece in your holidays. Where did you go?

Tim: Well, we went to Crete. We stayed there for about two weeks.

Interviewer: What was it like? Did you enjoy your time?

Tim: It was great. First thing we did after we arrived was we took a taxi to our hotel. It was fantastic, the rooms were nice, there was a wonderful garden round the place with palm trees and pink flowers ...

Interviewer: Ow, what about the food there? Was it okay?

Tim: We didn't eat at the hotel. We went to Greek family restaurants where you sit at small tables under old lemon trees and enjoy Greek cuisine at its best.

Interviewer: Did you visit any interesting places?

Tim: Well, one day we rented a car and went to Knossos. There we visited the ruins of a palace that is almost 4000 years old, it was unbelievable! Interesting place, but it was very hot and of course there were lots of tourists. We also went to Rethymno, this is a small town, very Greek, with narrow streets and lots of shops, and people want to sell you things all the time – still, we liked the place.

Interviewer: What is Crete like, I mean outside the towns?

Tim: There are lots of high mountains, the roads are narrow, and sometimes you have to stop to let a flock of sheep cross the road! You just have to take your time ... What I liked best was our walk through Antonios Gorge. The walls in this gorge are often only a few meters apart, and it's quite difficult to climb down the rocks. But it's fantastic because it is cool down there even at two o'clock in the afternoon. At the end of that day we enjoyed a cool drink at a tiny café at the end of the gorge – here's the photo of John drinking his well-deserved beer!

Interviewer: Well, you must have had a great time then. Come over to my place and show me some more photos!

Tim: Sure thing. Bye.

Interviewer: See you!
