TAPE SCRIPT

Peter: Hi, here is Peter – I'm in a football club so I play football every Wednesday and Friday afternoon for two hours. At the weekends we usually have matches, which means I play another 90 minutes of football. In summer we have a break of one month because most of the kids and our trainer go on holiday. So we don't have training in August. When we start our training in September again all of us are very happy!

Susan: Hello, this is Susan speaking. Well, to be honest I don't do a lot of sports; I sometimes ride my bike and I go skiing with my parents to the mountains near Vancouver. But most of the time I don't do a lot. But – yes – I do a lot of walking: two days a week I go for a long walk with my dog and on weekends I often go shopping with my friend, Yoko: for us shopping is exercise. We walk along all the streets where the shops are, we go up and down a lot of stairs and sometimes we carry heavy bags. After two hours of shopping I'm always really tired!

Kathi: I love snowboarding but, to be honest, I don't like skiing. I think snowboarding is much cooler. In summer I like swimming in the Danube or in lakes, and one day I would like to try water skiing.

Mogo: Hi, this is Mogo. I don't do a lot of sports; I prefer taking pictures and building things like little model ships or planes. When I was on holiday in Cairns I did some snorkelling at the Great Barrier Reef. That was great! I loved watching the giant sea turtles we saw there and all the colourful corals and fish. But here in Alice Springs, where I live, I can't go snorkelling – the sea is hundreds of kilometres away!
