INTERLOCUTOR:

Give the student the prompt card and explain the task.

○ [NAME], this is your task.

Imagine your family is spending the next summer holidays in Italy. You will stay in an apartment for four weeks. You are now looking for the ideal holiday flat. Have a look at the drawings of two different apartments. Do you like one of them? Or would you like to stay at a completely different one?

Talk about the ideal holiday apartment you have chosen. Describe it and tell me why you would take that one and not another one.

Before we start you have got 4 minutes time to make notes on this sheet.

🕒 Wait for 4 minutes before you begin the task.

○ [NAME], tell me about the ideal holiday apartment for your family. What does it look like and why do you like it?

You can talk for 2 minutes now.

PROMPTS (if necessary):

- What do you like about this apartment?
- Which rooms / furniture are in the apartment?
- Why do you think it is ideal for your family?
- What should be nearby (shops, ...)?
- Why didn't you choose another one?
- What would you miss / bring along from your home?

Talk for 2 minutes about the ideal holiday apartment you have chosen for your family. You can talk about:

- where the apartment is (surroundings)
- why you have chosen that apartment / what you like about it
- why you think that it is ideal / okay / the better choice for your family
- what the apartment looks like in detail (number, size and variety of rooms, furniture)
- what should be nearby (which shops, sea, ...)
- pros and cons for staying in that apartment for four weeks
- why you wouldn't choose the other apartment (the apartments in the picture)
- which personal things you would bring along from your own room / flat / house

You have got 4 minutes to make notes on this sheet:
