Hörtext

1. Listen and read along.

At a campsite

It's summer, school is over and many people are going on holiday. Anna and her family are going by car to a campsite in Italy. At the campsite, Anna from Austria makes many friends: Pascal from France, Pia from Germany, Pawel from Poland, and Chiara and Marco from Italy. They all speak English and they play beach volleyball and go swimming.

One day, a nice, black dog plays with them on the beach. In the evening the dog follows them to their tents and caravans.

The next morning the little dog is still outside Anna's tent. She feeds him. Then the children take the dog and ask the people at the campsite.

Paolo, the man from the shop knows the dog. It belongs to an English boy from the hotel nearby. So the children take the dog to the hotel.

„Thank you. Thank you so much for bringing Blacky back” the boy says. They are all happy.
